RECONCILIATION

One (1) hour before Mass and by Appointment

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Grace to you and peace! This Sunday marks the beginning of Catholic Schools Week. Since its inception, Catholic Schools Week has always begun on the last Sunday in January, coinciding with the celebration of St. John Bosco's Feast Day on January 31st. Those of you familiar with the life and efforts of St. John Bosco know that he was a very effective leader and teacher of at-risk youth in the 19th century. He exalted teaching methods based on love rather than punishment, a method of education that became known as the Salesian Preventative System. The religious congregation he founded, the Salesians, is one of the largest teaching orders in the world. As we begin this special week, let us invoke this great saint's intercession for our own parish school, St. Louis Catholic Academy, and continue to pray for our students, teachers, and staff and the advancement of the Catholic Schools mission. Thank you in advance for all your support!

Also, this week we will celebrate the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord on Friday, 2/2. This feast marks 40-days since the celebration of Christmas, and it commemorates the Blessed Virgin Mary and St. Joseph presenting the child Jesus in the Temple after His birth. Traditionally on this feast, liturgical and household candles are blessed. If you have any candles that you would like blessed, I will be happy to bless them before the start of Mass next weekend.

In addition to the candle blessing, we will be blessing throats! This blessing will be done after the close of the weekend Masses in honor of St. Blaise, the patron of diseases of the throat. His feast follows the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord on February 3rd. Tradition has it that when St. Blaise was being led away to be martyred, a mother laid her only son, choking to death on a fishbone, at the feet of St. Blaise, and through his prayer, the boy was miraculously saved. After the death of St. Blaise, it became a tradition to pray over the faithful with blessed candles (tied together in the shape of a cross) invoking the intercession of St. Blaise both for healing of and protection against diseases of the throat and any other illness. Don't miss out on this grace!

This past week, I had the great privilege to be on retreat in Phoenix, Arizona. Know that you all have been in my thoughts and prayers in a special way during this time away. May God bless you with His abundant grace!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Fr. Scott Scheiderer

“Embracing the Prophetic Voice”

“The first reading from Deuteronomy introduces a powerful theme: the prophetic voice that speaks with God's authority. This voice, as promised by God, is one like Moses, who would lead and guide the people in truth. In our own lives, recognizing and embracing this prophetic voice is crucial. It's not just about listening to words; it's about an encounter with the divine truth. The challenge lies in discerning who, in our time, carries this mantle of truth.

We are surrounded by many voices claiming authority – in media, in politics, in our communities. How do we recognize the true prophetic voice? The key is in its alignment with the teachings of Christ and the Church, and its fruits in love, justice, and peace. Embracing the prophetic voice means allowing it to challenge and transform us, leading us closer to God.”

“Speaking from Real Life”

“Jesus' way of teaching starkly contrasts with that of the scribes, as seen in the Gospel reading. The scribes, though knowledgeable, lacked the ability to connect deeply with the common people. Their teachings often hovered in the realm of theory, detached from the lived realities of those they were meant to guide. Jesus, on the other hand, spoke from real life. His authority was rooted not just in knowledge but in experience and empathy. He spoke of the Kingdom of God using parables and examples that resonated with the everyday experiences of His listeners.

This approach made His teachings accessible and transformative. It wasn't about complicated theological arguments but about truth presented in a way that reached hearts and minds. In our own lives, when we share our faith with others, are we speaking from real life? Do we connect our understanding of God's word with the practical realities people face every day? Speaking from real life means making faith relevant and accessible, just as Jesus did.”

“The Call to Undistracted Devotion”

“Paul's message in the second reading from 1 Corinthians presents a compelling call to undistracted devotion to the Lord. He contrasts the concerns of married and unmarried individuals, highlighting how the latter can focus more fully on God. This is not a denouncement of marriage but rather an invitation to consider how our states of life can best be oriented towards God.

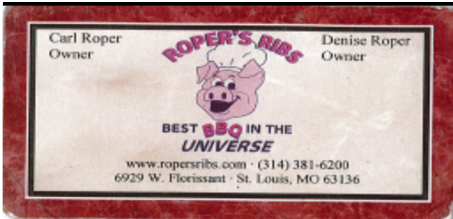

For the married, it is a challenge to find balance – to love and serve their families while keeping God at the center. For the unmarried, it's an opportunity to use their freedom for greater devotion and service.

Paul's advice is timeless: our primary focus, regardless of our state in life, should be on pleasing the Lord. This call to undistracted devotion is a reminder to assess our priorities and attachments. Are they leading us closer to God, or are they pulling us away? In a world filled with distractions, this message is more relevant than ever. We are called to a devotion that is undivided, a heart that seeks God first in all things.

These readings collectively invite us to a deeper understanding of our faith. They challenge us to discern and embrace the true voice of God, to speak and live our faith authentically, and to orient our lives towards undistracted devotion to God. The message for this 4th Sunday in Ordinary Time is not just about listening to these themes but about integrating them into our daily lives, allowing them to shape our actions, our relationships, and our understanding of what it means to be a follower of Christ.”
