RECONCILIATION

One (1) hour before Mass and by Appointment

Pastor's Pen

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Grace to you and peace! And happy New Year! On New's Year Day, we celebrated a 12:00 p.m. Mass at the Our Lady of the Holy Cross site for the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God. The first reading that day highlighted the priestly blessing of Numbers 6:24-26, a prayer of blessing that invokes the name of the Lord upon the people. I'd like to extend this blessing upon all of us as we begin this new year:

The Lord bless you and keep you!
The Lord let His face shine upon you,
and be gracious to you!
The Lord look upon you kindly and give you peace!

On this 2nd Sunday of the Christmas Season, we celebrate the Epiphany of the Lord. The word "epiphany" comes from the original Greek word "epiphainein," which basically means appearance" or "manifestation." Now, what is being made manifest at this special feast is Jesus as Messiah of Israel, Son of God, and Savior of the world.

With the celebration of this feast, we are reminded too of our responsibility to make Christ manifest in our daily lives. We are Christ's representatives here on earth, and we are called to reflect His light, each in his or her own unique way. In 1 Corinthians 12:7, St. Paul writes, "To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit." The more we give ourselves to the Life imparted to us at our baptism, the more that Life will make Itself known to all those we encounter. Let us heed this call, then, and make manifest the revelation of the children of God (Romans 8:19).

God bless you with His abundant grace as we close out this glorious Christmas season!

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Fr. Scott Scheiderer
Parochial Administrator of OLHC, SA, SEMJB, and SMA

Dr. Martin Luther King
Commemoration

48th Annual Archdiocesan Celebration on the Holiday Weekend Commemorating the Legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Sunday January 14, 2024, at 2:30 PM, at the Cathedral Basilica of St. Louis. This is inclusive of Mass and the 17th Annual Dr. MLK, Jr. Model of Justice Awards. Mark your calendar!

EPIPHANY BLESSING OF THE HOME

Begin by having all family members gather outside the front door. All make the sign of the cross. Then one member, using the blessed chalk marks the doorway with:
20 + C + M + B + 24

After marking the door, a family member reads the following:

Today we mark our door with the year 2024 and the letters C .M .B ..

This marking serves as a reminder during the year that we are asking God’s blessing on our home and all who enter here.

The three letters stand for the tradition names of the Magi: C for Caspar, M is for Melchior and B is for Balthazar. Their initials CMB also abbreviate the Latin words: “Christus mansionem benedicat” - “May Christ bless this house.”

Let us pray. Lord God of heaven and earth, you revealed your only-begotten Son to every nation by the guidance of a star. Bless this house and all who inhabit it. Fill them (us) with the light of Christ, that their (our) concern for others may reflect your love. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The leader concludes the rite by signing himself or herself with the sign of the cross and saying:
May Christ Jesus dwell with us, keep us from all harm, and make us one in mind and heart, now and forever. Amen.
All make the sign of the cross.

The Epiphany of the Lord

NEW PARISH "NAME PROPOSAL"

The Evangelists Catholic Church
Sts. Matthew, Mark, Luke and John
(Submitted by Michele Brown – St. Augustine)

The four Evangelists, Matthew, Mark, Luke and John are the attributed authors of the four canonical Gospel accounts in the New Testament of the Bible. They are called the evangelist, a word meaning "people who proclaimed good news," because their books aim to tell the "good news" ("gospel") of Jesus (Wikipedia)

Naming our new parish after these evangelizers serves as a powerful reminder of their role in spreading the gospel and nurturing the faith to countless believers. Matthew, Mark, Luke and John are revered as the authors of the four canonical Gospels, which provide valuable insight into the life, teachings and ministry of Jesus Christ. By incorporating their names into the parish identity pays homage to their contribution and encourages parishioners to show zeal in their evangelization.

By naming our new parish after the evangelizers it symbolizes the coming together of our diverse communities under a common purpose, fostering a spirit of cooperation and enabling more effective outreach to both believers and nonbelievers.

A major focus of All Things New was to create parishes that would have an impact on the evangelization in the Catholic Church. By centering its mission on sharing the good news of Jesus Christ the parish can actively engage with a wider community, reach out to those seeking faith and provide a welcoming space for all to encounter God's love. The names of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John, serves as a constant reminder of the importance of evangelization, hopefully, inspiring parishioners to actively participate in this aspect of our faith.

By honoring these key figures in the spread of the Gospel, the parishioners will acknowledge their profound impact and encourage parishioners to follow in their footsteps. Placing an emphasis on evangelization will ensure that the parish remains dedicated to sharing the message of Christ.

Saint Matthew inspires us to be diligent and to strive for humility. He left his comfort and pleasures to follow Jesus, providing a perfect example of what it looks like to follow God despite financial difficulties.

Saint Mark is the author of one of the four Gospel accounts and played a vital role in spreading the Gospel as a missionary in the early church. Saint Mark, the evangelist.

St. Luke emphasizes Christ's compassion for sinners and for those who suffer. St. Luke is a servant of the Lord.

St. John stands for the disciple whom Jesus the Lord and Master loved most, a message of God's love; a person of deep insight in the mystery of God and His love. St. John is the patron saint of love, loyalty, friendships and authors.
